13:00 - 14:00 - Lunch
14:00 - 15:00 - Next steps

Through the two day online training. we will in the participatory manner explore the narratives of white normativity, cultural appropriation and how we communicate. How can we use the inclusive language, how can we be mindful about what is happening in our cultural surroundings and how can as well, by being the role models in the society create a space to explore and learn from each other.

Methodologies used will be: group work, storytelling, individual reflections, sharing, learning from each other and providing the safe space to explore the cultural norms we were raised in.
